JUDGMENT (Per Sri B.Prakash Rao, J)

Heard both sides and at their request, the main appeal itself is taken up for disposal.

Though this appeal is sought to be filed against the interim order making interim order absolute, subject matter of the writ petition is against transfer.

The main plea which is involved is as to the applicability of Section 9-A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 against the impugned action which necessarily has to be gone into. In the circumstances, we do not find any justification to interdict the same at this stage, instead main writ petition can be heard at the earliest.

Office to post the main writ petition itself for final hearing subject to part heard on 24-10-2005 before the regular Court hearing the matters.
